

Accreditation Success!

We are delighted to announce that our EI coach and practitioner training, offered through our training partner Minds4Success Ltd, has achieved accreditation through Middlesex University.

There are 3 levels of study available for which post-graduate credits are awarded:

1. Foundation in EI Self Mastery (20 credits)

A personal EI development journey for anyone wishing to develop their own emotional intelligence

Module runs over 9 months and involves 5 contact days, participation in an action learning set, and self-directed learning.

This Foundation module forms the basis of the following Certificate and Diploma programmes:

2. Certificate in Emotional Intelligence Coaching (60 credits) leading to a postgraduate certificate award from Middlesex University

Become an EI Coach with the only accredited emotional intelligence-based coach training programme currently available in the UK!

3. Diploma in Emotional Intelligence Development (120 credits) leading to a postgraduate diploma award from Middlesex University

Additional modules to the Certificate in Emotional Intelligence Coaching create an advanced study in EI practitionership for those wanting to develop their EI consultancy and training expertise.

A total of 80 credits may be mapped on to Middlesex University's MA or MSc in Work-based Learning.
